

Dear Parents,

February is "I Love to Read" month. To help make this month special and spark a "love" for reading I am planning some fun activities. One special activity that I would "love" to extend your way is to be a guest reader in our classroom during story time! Each of you are invited to come to our classroom, any day in February, to read a story you "loved" as a child or a story you now "love" with your child. If you are in need of a book I can provide you with some favorites before you are the guest reader. I can be very flexible with the time. On the back of this letter I have listed the available times you could come in for story time. Story time is usually 10-15 minutes long, depending on the book! I know you all have many things to do during the day, but I also think that your child would "love" to have you as a special guest reader!! Think about it and return the bottom sign up slip by Tuesday, January 26th. I will then make out a schedule and let you know your day and time to be our guest reader for February!! I am excited to have you join us for story time during "I Love to Read" month!
